

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

5th ANNUAL VIRTUAL WORKSHOP ON GEOETHICAL NANOTECHNOLOGY

TERASEM MOVEMENT, INC.
TERASEM ISLAND, SECOND LIFE
www.GeoNano2009.com

JULY 20, 2009
40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST LUNAR LAUNCH

WHO: Professionals with an interest in nanotechnology, biotechnology, and bioethics.

WHAT: The topic of this Virtual Workshop is:
“Applications of Asilomar Guidelines to Self-Replicating Machines.”

WHEN: July 20, 2009 – 1:00PM to 4:00PM EST.

WHERE: Terasem Island in Second Life at www.secondlife.com
(Teleport to the following coordinates: 121.155.30)

WHY: This scholarly workshop will focus on reconciling conflicts, apprehensions, and scientific ambitions regarding self-replicating nanotechnology via use of the practical guidelines developed for biotechnology.

HOW: Submit a title and 100-word abstract for a 20 minute PowerPoint presentation to lori@TerasemCentral.org no later than May 15, 2009. Accepted presenters will be notified by June 1, 2009. To facilitate our virtual workshop and posting arrangements, we ask that the presentation, in its entirety, be submitted to Lori Rhodes no later than July 1, 2009. Each presenter is provided with 20 minutes to make their PowerPoint presentation to the workshop attendees, as well as the general, virtual Second Life public. A 20 minute discussion period follows each presentation. All presentations and discussions will be transcribed by a court reporter; the transcript will then be submitted to each presenter for approval. The approved transcripts will be posted on the workshop website and may also be published in the Online Journal of Geoethical Nanotechnology.

SECOND LIFE INFO:

Upon presentation acceptance, we will be pleased to provide you with the necessary information and instruction to participate in the Terasem Island, Second Life virtual workshop.
